Children & Young People Directorate ...Who are we?

SAFEGUARDING:

Child and Adult Safeguarding are key priorities for the Council. We aim to support children and adults at risk to be as safe as they can and to fulfil their potential. All Council employees and volunteers are responsible for playing their part in the well-being, safety and protection of children and adults at risk. All employees and volunteers will be trained to the appropriate level of safeguarding and have a duty to fulfil their personal responsibilities for safeguarding.

Our Purpose:-

“To give children the best start in life, the Children and Young People Directorate (CYP) provides a range of support services for schools including admissions, finance, school improvement and support for pupils with additional learning needs”.

The Purpose of this Role:-

Keeping staff, pupils and others who may be affected by the Council's activities and facilities safe is a priority. Providing the health and safety lead for the Children and Young People Directorate, you will advise, guide and support service managers and headteachers in managing health and safety. Championing the health and safety agenda, you will provide them with competent, professional advice and guidance to ensure compliance with legislative requirements and Council policy.

Through strong health and safety leadership, support, training and a proactive approach, you will assist in embedding a strong health and safety culture across the Authority.

Expectation and Outcomes of this Role:-

Working as part of the Corporate Health and Safety Team you will work with service managers and headteachers to ensure arrangements for managing health and safety within the Children and Young People Directorate are suitably robust and any areas of non compliance are identified and subsequently addressed.

With excellent oral and written communication skills, you will need to demonstrate the ability to prioritise varying tasks and workload to align with service targets and deadlines.

Your responsibilities are to:-

Health & Safety

1. Work as part of the Corporate Health and Safety team to protect and promote the health, safety, welfare and wellbeing of staff, pupils and others affected by the Council's activities and facilities.
2. Undertake the role of competent person, for the Children and Young Peoples Directorate, including schools as outlined in Regulation 7 of the Management of Health Safety and Welfare Regulations.
3. Provide competent, risk focused health and safety support, advice and guidance to service managers and headteachers in line with legislative requirements, official guidance, Council policy and best practice.
4. Promote and ensure safe working practices by providing advice, support, and guidance to staff.
5. Support the development, review and updating of Council health and safety policies and guidance.
6. Provide assistance to service managers and headteachers in undertaking risk assessments and provide competent advice for the completion of complex risk assessments, offering pragmatic and proportionate solutions and recommendations as appropriate.
7. Undertake planned and ad-hoc health and safety audits, inspections and monitoring activities across the full breadth of the Council's operations and activities, including those carried out by third parties, to ensure that risks are being suitably communicated and controls are being effectively implemented. Assist managers in the formation of action plans to address any concerns.
8. Report issues identified through the monitoring process for resolution.
9. Routinely monitor health and safety across the Directorate, providing support to minimise, eliminate or control identified risks and hazards.

10. Actively participate in the safety management process, safety walks, staff and Governor meetings as required.
11. Review reports of work-related accidents, near misses, work-related ill health and incidents of violence at work, undertaking analysis of data to address any trends; investigate any significant health and safety failures, identify contributory factors and root causes and report on the findings.
12. Work with service managers and headteachers to ensure the timely notification of relevant incidents to the HSE under the Reporting of Injuries Diseases and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations (RIDDOR).
13. Support service managers and headteachers prior to and during regulator (HSE/Fire Officer) interventions and in responding to regulator recommendations and/or enforcement actions.
14. Assist in the development and maintenance of health and safety systems and ensure all advice and guidance provided, inspections, visits and action taken are appropriately recorded and where necessary suitable evidence is gathered.
15. Develop expertise on health and safety subjects as required e.g. work related stress, vibration, contractor management, fire safety, management of asbestos and legionella.
16. Advise on implications and interpretations of current, new and pending health and safety legislation.
17. Undertake investigations and prepare reports as required. This may include leading on high risk accident investigation activities, preparing reports for the Directorate Management Team, Corporate Health & Safety Group, employee forums or other or local health and safety groups.
18. Represent the authority during inquiries, inquests and in legal proceedings as necessary.

Training

19. Assist managers and headteachers in undertaking employee health and safety training needs assessments.
20. Work with managers and headteachers to identify improvement strategies, training and development needs arising from the analysis of accident statistics, departmental needs, new legislation and official guidance.
21. Develop and deliver training within areas of expertise, which meet the Council's statutory obligations and reflects the level of understanding and learning required by employees at different levels within the organisation.
22. Quality assure health and safety training provided internally and by third parties to ensure it is consistent with current legislation, official guidance and Council policy.

Workforce Development and Well-Being

23. Lead in the development and delivery of health, safety, and wellbeing programmes and campaigns to raise awareness of health and safety requirements and improve compliance.
24. Work with service managers, headteachers and HR colleagues to identify health, safety and wellbeing priorities and assist in the development of service plans and risk registers as required. .
25. Produce an annual health, safety and wellbeing report for the Children and Young People Directorate
26. Work with managers and the Council's occupational health service provider, to ensure health surveillance requirements are met.
27. Work with service managers and headteachers to ensure health and safety inductions are suitably robust.
28. Attend as required health and safety meetings and forums, including the Children and Young People Directorate Health and Safety Group and Corporate Health and Safety Group and liaise with Trade Union representatives and external agencies on health and safety matters as necessary.
29. Provide cover for other Health and Safety Officers when required e.g. when they are on annual leave or otherwise unavailable.
30. Develop, implement and monitor a succession plan to give colleagues the best possible opportunity to improve, progress and for the service to have resilience and sustainability.
31. At all times comply with and promote the Council's Health and Safety Policy.
32. Keep up to date with knowledge, developments and legislation concerning health and safety and other relevant areas of work e.g. British Standards, best management practice
33. Undertake refresher and update training as required.
34. Undertake any other duties commensurate with the grade of this post.

Here's what we can provide you with:-

- The opportunity to develop Welsh language skills.
- Full support of the Council as a valued colleague.
- Supportive and flexible line management from the Corporate Health and Safety Manager.
- Support from colleagues in the wider Children and Young People Directorate with collaborative working to achieve excellent outcomes. Pooling resources and accessing internal expertise where possible; and

- A pleasant working environment with an ability and freedom to work on an agile basis.

What else you need to know.....Our Values:

Our purpose is underpinned by a clear sense of who we are as an organisation. We expect people who work with us to share a strong value set, and expect that these are evident in the ways in which we work and engage with our communities.

Teamwork: We will work with you and our partners to support and inspire everyone to get involved. We will make the best of the ideas, and resources available to make sure we do the things that most positively impact our people and places.

Openness: We are open and honest. People have the chance to be involved and tell us what matters.

Flexibility: We are flexible, enabling delivery of the most effective and efficient services. This means a genuine commitment to working with everyone to embrace new ways of working.

Fairness: We provide opportunities for people and communities to thrive. We will always try to treat everyone fairly and consistently.

Kindness: We will show kindness to all those we work with, putting the importance of relationships and the connections we have with one another at the heart of all interactions.

In addition:

All employees are responsible for ensuring that they act at all times in a way that is consistent with Monmouthshire's Equal Opportunities Policy in their own area of responsibility and in their general conduct.

The Authority operates a Smoke Free Workplace Policy which all employees are required to abide to.
